

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

* * *

TROY EMANUEL, JR.,

Case No. 3:23-cv-00564-MMD-CSD

Plaintiff,

ORDER

COOKE, et al.,

Defendants.

11 Pro se Plaintiff Troy Emanuel, Jr., who is currently in the custody of the Nevada
12 Department of Corrections, brings Eighth Amendment claims and a retaliation claim under 13 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against Defendants Brown, Gamberg, Cooke, Drummond, Gittere,
14 Milke, and Pickens. (ECF No. 52 at 1.) Emanuel filed a motion for summary judgment.
15 (ECF No. 49 (“Motion”).) Before the Court is the Report and Recommendation (“R&R”) of 16 United States Magistrate Judge Craig S. Denney, recommending that the Motion be 17 denied as premature. (ECF No. 52.) Emanuel did not file an objection to the R&R. The 18 Court will adopt the R&R in full and address a more recent motion Emanuel filed. (ECF 19 No. 53.)

20 Because there is no objection, the Court need not conduct de novo review, and is 21 satisfied that Judge Denney did not clearly err. See United States v. Reyna-Tapia, 328
22 F.3d 1114, 1116 (9th Cir. 2003) (“De novo review of the magistrate judges’ findings and 23 recommendations is required if, but only if, one or both parties file objections to the 24 findings and recommendations.”).

25 A motion for summary judgment filed prior to the opposing party's answer is 26 premature. See FED. R. CIV. P. 56 advisory committee's note to 1946 amendment. Judge
27 Denney found that the Motion was premature because Defendants had not yet filed an 28 answer when Emanuel filed his Motion. (ECF No. 52 at 2.) The Court had also not entered

1 a discovery plan and scheduling order or permitted discovery to take place. (Id.) The 2 Court is satisfied that Judge Denney did not clearly err in finding that Emanuel filed his
3 Motion prematurely. The Court will accordingly adopt Judge Denney's recommendation
4 to deny Emanuel's Motion.

5 Emanuel also filed a motion to demand jury trial. (ECF No. 53.) In this motion, he 6 requests that this case proceed to trial without performing discovery. (Id. at 1-2.) For 7 clarity, the case will proceed towards a jury trial as both parties demanded it. (ECF Nos.
8 5 at 1, 54 at 1.) However, discovery is required as it allows parties to access information 9 that may support their claims. See FED. R. CIV. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(ii) (requiring parties to 10 provide "all documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things that the 11 disclosing party has in its possession, custody, or control and may use to support its 12 claims or defenses"). The Court will therefore treat the motion as a motion for clarification,
13 grant the motion to the extent necessary to assure Emanuel that this case is proceeding
14 towards a jury trial, but reminds Emanuel that discovery in anticipation of a jury trial is not 15 optional.

16 It is therefore ordered that Judge Denney's R&R (ECF No. 52) is accepted and 17 adopted in full.

18 It is further ordered that Emanuel's motion for summary judgment (ECF No. 49) is 19 denied without prejudice as premature.

20 It is further ordered that Emanuel's motion to demand jury trial (ECF No. 53) is 21 granted as specified herein.

22 DATED THIS 15th Day of October 2024.
